H. Res. 157

In the House of Representatives, U.S.,

May 4, 1999.

- Whereas the foundation of American freedom and democracy is a strong, effective system of education in which every child can learn in a safe and nurturing environment;
- Whereas a first-rate education system depends on a partnership between parents, principals, teachers, and children;
- Whereas much of the success of our Nation during the American Century is the result of the hard work and dedication of teachers across the land;
- Whereas, in addition to their families, knowledgeable and skillful teachers can have a profound impact on a child's early development and future success;
- Whereas, while many people spend their lives building careers, teachers spend their careers building lives;
- Whereas our Nation's teachers serve our children beyond the call of duty as coaches, mentors, and advisors without regard to fame or fortune; and
- Whereas across this land nearly 3 million men and women experience the joys of teaching young minds the virtues of reading, writing, and arithmetic: Now, therefore, be it
 - Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

- (1) honors and recognizes the unique and important achievements of America's teachers; and
- (2) urges all Americans to take a moment to thank and pay tribute to our Nation's teachers.

Attest:

Clerk.
